Farmingville, NY – On August 13, Councilman Kevin LaValle attended the 5th Annual Farmingville Multicultural Festival held at Triangle Park. The event featured foods of many nations, cultural singers and dancers, Japanese drums, guitar music and puppeteers for children of all ages. The event was sponsored by the Farmingville Residents Association, One More for Jesus Church and Helping Hands Ministry.

Councilman LaValle said, "Once again, everybody had a great time at the festival which gets bigger and bigger every year. The residents of Farmingville are a diverse group with a tremendous amount of community spirit. Thanks to all those who organized this event and I look forward to coming back next year."
